

James E. Kearney

September 10, 1943 - October 16, 2002

James Earl Kearney, the son of the late James H. Kearney and Annabelle Kearney, was born in Baltimore, Maryland, one September 10, 1943, with a love of God, church and community. He departed this life on Tuesday, October 15, 2002. Earl, as he was fondly called, was a devoted son, husband, father, grandfather and friend. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School system and attended Morgan State University. He worked at Maryland Glass, and later Carr Lowrey Glass Co. for over 38 years. He served in the United States Army Reserves for two years. Earl was an avid outdoorsman, who enjoyed fishing, hunting, and any opportunity to admire nature's beauty. He could light up a room with his infectious personality, quick wit and always-present smile. He enjoyed playing keno, making road trips to Delaware, and being a grandparent. He was a wonderful provider for his wife and two sons. He was united in holy matrimony with Catherine S. Wilson, in 1967. From this union came two sons. Earl is survived by his wife Catherine "Huck" Kearney; his sons, James Earl Kearney, II and Gary Dwight Kearney; his mother, Annabel Kearney; three grandchildren, Brandon, Jade and Justin Kearney; two sister-in-laws, Linda A. Coates and Glenda Wilson; three brothers-in-law, W. Paul Coates, Eric Wilson and David Wilson, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ James E. Kearney

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Catherine,..... There are moments in time when God calls someone home,... and the ones left behind feel so alone,... and though none of us knows when our moment will be,... we know death is the beginning of eternity..... In Christian love.... Aunt Corrine & Family##imported-begin##duane hooker##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ At this difficult time so many people care deeply about what you're going through, though no one can truly understand all that you feel...But please remember how much we care, and know you're surrounded by warm, supportive thoughts and wishes for strength and peace today, and in all the days to come.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM