“ I am very sorry to learn about the death of James. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5;3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mr. Tunstall Jr. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ I send my deep sympathy to the family of James. Losing a loved one in death is so hard to come to terms with. We miss them so very much. This grief and sorrow we go through was neve God"s purpose for mankind. He desires all to live everlastingly in peaceful and secure conditions; but we find that this is not the case at this time. Nothing can or will stop Jehovah"s purpose from being fulfilled. Psalm 37:10,11 says that one day the wicked will be no more; but the meek ones willl possess the earth, and find exquisited delight in the abundance of peace. Isaiah 25,8 shows that after Jehovah swallows up death forever; then he will wipe the tears from all faces' so all will share in that peace that he has promised. May you find much comfort in his promises as well as in your precious memories of James.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
