“ James was a family to our small group of fruebds that we called family. I remember when I bought my house and we needed help getting everything together and james, Rodney, Loretta, Felicia and Placido came to help us. We shared meals together we were family of our own choosing . You will always be in my heart. I am so sorry for your families lose 🙏

James was one of the nicest people I ever met. He had a great smile and a big heart. He had a kind word for everyone. Everyone liked James. What a great guy.
