

James Earl Cannon

March 4, 1957 - February 5, 2009

James Earl Cannon was born March 4, 1957 in St. Matthews, South Carolina to the late, Herman Cannon, Sr. and Willie Mae Cannon. He is the youngest of six siblings. James moved to Baltimore, Maryland when he was six weeks old. God has truly showed favor over James life from early on until now. At the age of five, he was seriously injured in an automobile accident. There was a time when doctors did not think James was going to make it. God healed his body and blessed him with 47 more years of life on earth. For weeks, James was hospitalized; during those last two and half weeks prior to his death, the doctors did not think James was going to live through the night. With the help of God and James strength he continued to live. James departed his earthly life on March 5, 2009. James was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. James was employed for the Baltimore City Department of Transportation and Gordon Packing Company for many years. He experienced physical health conditions, which later caused him to retire. In the meantime, James kept busy. He was known as the "hanyman", he was gifted with his hands. On January 6, 2002, James joined Israel Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Dr. H. Walden Wilson II, Pastor. James completed the new membership class; and received his right hand of fellowship. He was excited and proud of his new Christian Journey. As God touched James, taking him from life on earth to life eternally, he will rest in heaven with his father, Herman Cannon, Sr. James leaves to cherish his many memories, mother, Willie Mae Cannon, daughter, Alicia Cooper, son Cameron Simpson, five precious grandchildren, one brother, Herman Cannon, Jr.; four sisters, Jeannette Cannon, Annie Toland, Doris Mackins and Lillie Cannon; a host of aunts,uncles,nieces,nephews,cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ James Earl Cannon

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the family of James I offer my sincere and heartfelt condolences at this time. Although nonone can know how you are personally are feeling, I can truly sympathize, because I too have lost many loved ones in death. It hurts us like no other event in our lives. Our loving heavenly father, the living God Jehovah knows the pain and sorrow death brings to us, and he has taken steps to end all suffering on this earth very soon. 1st Cor 15:26 makes this wonderful promise: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Your loved one is asleep, and one day Jesus will wake him up, along with millions of others who have died. Notice what the bible says about this. At JOhn 5:28,29 it says, "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus's) voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." What a glorious day that will be. May you be comforted by the wonderful promises that God has written to give us comfort, and a solid hope to cling to. May your cherished memories of James help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I'm so sorry to here about the lost of yur love one James May go's peace be with you##imported-begin##Joyce Edwards-Howell##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Job 14:14,15 lovingly reveals: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days..I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning". May you receive much comfort and strength from family, friends and the wonderful hope by Jehovah God through his Son found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM