“ Dear family of James, I'm so sorry for your loss, and I send my deep condolences. I know the pain of losing a loved one and it hurts us like nothing else we can go through. A comforting scripture is found at Rev 21;4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. And speaking about God verse 5 says, "Look! "I am making all things new." This is Jehovah's promise to us that he will make all things new, that is, there will be a new paradise world where pain, sorrow, violence, sickness, and death will be a thing of the past. Isiah 65:17 says that even the memory of such things will be forgotten. I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address so that I can share with you how these wonderful blessings will take place. One day all pain will be gone. What a wonderful promise. May you find comfort in the bible hope of the ressurection, and may your cherished memories of Janes live in your hearts forever, until God's word comes to pass.
