

James W. Eaton Sr.

December 15, 2014

JAMES WILBERT EATON, SR. son of Leatha Bell Aldridge and the late James Rufus Eaton, was born on November 4, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a hard fought battle with illness, he departed this life on December 15, 2014.

James, affectionately known as “Big”, received his education at Mack Ivory School in Littleton, North Carolina. Shortly after graduating high school, “Big” joined the United States Air Force in 1963. after serving domestically and abroad, he was Honorably Discharged in 1968 and began working for the Maryland Transit Administration (MTA) as a Bus Driver in Baltimore, Maryland. He retired from MTA after devoting many years. He was a lifelong member of Oak Grove Baptist Church in Littleton, North Carolina.

“Big” was the devoted husband of Barbara (Pool) Eaton and the loyal father of two children, James Jr. and Shunia Eaton from an earlier union with the late Willie Lois Eaton.

He leaves to cherish his memory; his mother, Leatha Aldridge; step-father, Dennis Aldridge; wife, Barbara Eaton; son, James Eaton Jr.; daughter, Shunia Eaton; two sisters, Geraldine Mickle and Kathy Johnson; brother, Nathaniel Price; uncle, Izear Brown (Littleton, NC); several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
