

James Edward Mitchell

December 10, 1941 - October 6, 2006

JAMES E. MITCHELL, son of the late Edward Ballard and Jeanette Mitchell, was born on December 10, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland. He quietly slipped away on October 6, 2006. He received his education in the Baltimore City School System, graduating from Frederick Douglass High School. He enlisted in the U. S. Army and was honorably discharged, after completing his tour of duty. James retired from the Maryland Transit Administration, after forty-two years of loyal service. James married Alfine Stokes, the love of his life, on January 30, 1984. This loving union was ordained by God and blessed for twenty-two years. James was always happy at home, working on one project after another. He was always ready to share a story about his daughter, Pumpkin (Stephanie) and his grandchildren. When not working, one of his favorite hobbies was raising his dogs. James made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was a devoted family man. His legacy of love will remain in the hearts of his wife, daughter, and grandchildren forever. He was preceded in death by his brother, Vernon Ballard and sister, Doris Ballard. He leaves to celebrate his life: wife, Alfine Mitchell; daughter, Stephanie Mitchell-Holbrook; grandchildren, Myesha Mitchell, Corey Jones and Daquan Holbrook; sisters, Helena Ballard and Jeanette Mitchell; brother, Shaft Dawminnick; son-in-law, Donald Holbrook; sisters-in-law, Barbara Duvall, Clarissa Grier, Rose Long and Gladys Dawminnick; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences goes out to your family. May you derive comfort from God's word which says at 1 Cor 15:26"he will remove our enemy death." We are also promised the hope of the resurrection at Acts 24:15 which tells us that..."there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." This truly shows us just how much Almighty God cares about us.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
