

James Edward Monroe

November 16, 1947 - June 7, 2008

James E. Monroe, Jr. affectionately known as "Fats", was the youngest son of the late Ernestine and James E. Monroe, Sr. He entered this life on November 16, 1947 and departed on Saturday, June 7, 2008 at McGuire's Veterans Medical Center, after a brief illness. Fats, accepted Christ at an early age at St. John's Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia. He attended Richmond Public Schools and graduated from John Marshall High School, where he played tuba in the cadet band. He served in the Naval Reserve and then the United States Air Force during the Vietnam War. Fats was employed by the U.S. Postal Service. He also loved music and enjoyed being a disc jockey. Fats was preceded in death by his older brother, Marvin Lee Monroe, Sr. He leaves to cherish his memory, two sisters; Marlene Fowler and Shari Johnson (Walter); three nieces: Charlene Kersey (William), Felicia Fowler and Tiffany Satchell-Toney; four nephews; Marvin Lee Monroe, Jr., Dr. Rickie Monroe (Mary), Curtis Richardson and Warren Satchell. Fats also leaves to cherish his memory one aunt: Carrie Robinson (Simon); a step-mother, Sarah Monroe and a host of other relatives and friends. Also mourning his loss are devoted friends: Raymond Dark, Michael Bradley, and Lester (Poojack) Hughes, among many others.

Tribute Wall

“ James Edward Monroe

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the the family and friends of my partner Money as I called him, thanks for the memories and support may God rest your Soul.##imported-begin##Ronald Wms. (Blood)##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ May God comfort you during this difficult time. Noone wants to lose a loved one in death. It"s truly a heartbreaking thing to go through. I know, because I too have lost loved ones in death. What comforts me, and I hope will comfort you too is the sure hope of the ressurection. At John 11:25 Jesus made this promise. "I am the ressurection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me even though he dies, will come to life." Yes Jehovah has given all authority to his son to ressurect the dead. That is why John 5:26-29 tells us this: "For just as the father has life in himself, so he has granted also to the son to have life in himself. "And he has given him power to do judging, because Son of Man he is. "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life.' This scripture strengthens me, and helps me to carry on, because I know that if I am faithful I will see my loved ones again. I hope you find solace and strength from the bible as well, because one day all things promised in the bible will be fullfilled. Isaiah 55,11##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM