

James Edward Penn

June 15, 1923 - August 3, 2002

James Edward Penn, son of the late Edward p. and Kate Penn, was born on June 15, 1923 in Valentine, Virginia. He departed this life on August 3, 2002 at the Veterans Hospital after being very ill. He received his education in Lawrenceville, Virginia and in the United States Army from 1940-1945. In 1948, he married his best friend the late Magnolia Williams. He retired from a private construction company in 1993, but still continued to work in that field on his own up until he became ill in May 2002. His friends and family will truly miss James. He was independent soul, and a fun loving person. He leaves to mourn: three sisters, Amanda, Fannie and Hazel, brother-in-law, Bennie; his nieces, Cheryl, Juanita, Rose, Mary and Jackie; his nephews, Edward (Jo-Jo) and Bennie Jr.; a special friend, Cumilla; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
