

James Ernest Bellinger

May 4, 1946 - July 25, 2008

On Friday July 25, 2008, God in his infinite wisdom beckoned two of his angels to His side and said, “ Go down to the Veterans Administration Hospital and escort my son James home!” Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ sent His special angels to escort Jimmy home. James Ernest Bellinger (affectionately know as “Jimmy” or “Bone”) was born on May 4, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Luther Bellinger and Esther Brown. Jimmy received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools System, and attended Carver Vocational Technical High School. Jimmy enlisted in the United States Army after high school, and served his country for several years. During his military career, Jimmy served as an Executive Chef and was stationed in Alaska for over a year. He received a National Defense Service Medal and an award for being an expert with the M14 Rifle. Keeping with his career as a Chef, he worked for Montgomery Wards, Inc. for more than 10 years. Jimmy enjoyed life and loved to make people laugh. When he left the room, lasting memories of good times would be with everyone in his presence. He was knowledgeable of many things, but loved to talk about history, the military, current events, sports and education. He would always stress the importance of education to his grandchildren and their friends. Every morning before leaving for school, the last thing he would say to them was “ learn something”. His favorite past time was spending time with hi family, friends, and Chi-Chi (his pet). Jimmy will be missed by everyone who knew and loved him He leaves with precious memories: a life-long companion, Gwendolyn Gray; three daughters, Kim

Bellinger, Cordell Jackson, and Sharonda Stevenson; six grandchildren, Tonisha Eberhart, De'Quan Eberhart, Zearra Hill, Jayla Jackson, Candyce Jackson, and Chi-Chi; two sons-in-law, James Jackson and Anthony Hill; two aunts, Agnes Coleman and Netti Bundy; one Uncle James Brown Sr.; and a host of in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousin, and friends.

“ May I send my fellow feeling to you all, the family and friends. Lossing a dear one recently breaks the circle of life for all. The bible give so much comfort and hope for you all, Romans 15:4. In the near future we can look forward the time when no one will ever die, Isa.25:8, gone forever. May your journey of life keep being supported by loving hearts of all.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your recent circle of life being broken after 62 years of loving Mr. James. Our creator knows how you all are fairing in your lost and care so much about, 1 Peter 5:7. The time is coming when no onew will ever die at all, Isa.25:8. I am so looking forward to that happening, Why because Jehovah God can not lie. May all the many chersihed memories of Mr. James help in life journey ahead.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family of Mr Bellinger. May you find comfort and peace from our loving heavenly father, and know that he has wonderful things in store for those who love and serve him. One day he promises that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "These former things will pass away. Rev 21,4 One day your loved one will be raised back to life, and will live in peaceful and secure conditions in Jehovah"s new paradise earth that he is making. 2nd Peter 3:13, Psalm 37:10,11. May you find much comfort and strength in God"s promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My Deepest & Heartfelt Condolences to the Bellinger Family. May God wrap each of you in a blanket of solace and love. Kim, your Father was highly favored by our Lord and Savior. What else could explain the fact that he had his very own Angel right here on earth? You are an incredible daughter, and the way that you lovingly and unselfishly cared for your Dad, shall certainly find you favor too. I know that this is a very, very difficult time, but I pray that you soon find peace and comfort in your memories. Love, Larina###imported-begin###Larina Mouzon###imported-end###
