

James F. Byrd

June 23, 1971 - June 19, 2008

James Frank Byrd 3rd, the first son born unto the union of James F. Byrd Jr and Marcia A. Byrd, was born on June 23, 1971 in Baltimore City Hospital. James journey ended suddenly on Thursday, June 19, 2008. James received his education in the School of United Cerebral Palsy, from which he graduated. He was affectionately known as “Scoop” or “Scoopy Cat”. He was more than a composer even more so an over comer. He was a bright and shiny light full of energy from the Holy Spirit. In his presence was joy and laughter with a sober mind. He always showed his love to family and friends with a hug and if he wanted to really have fun, he would trick you with his hugs by holding you real tight with all his might, letting you know “Scoop can fight “ laughing at you trying to free yourself. Then he would let you go; only to hear you say, “Scoopy is strong.” His reply, “Yeah” You could never have a heart of anger or sadness in his presence, simply because his spirit of joy was so powerful and the rays if his light were so bright it would overshadow you with joy and laughter, in as much to say this joy I have the world didn’t give to me and the world can’t take it away. He even had a passion for “the ladies.” “Scoop “ made numerous friends wherever he went and will be truly missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to cherish his memory; his father and mother, James and Marcia Byrd; his grandmother, Mary Byrd; sister, Towanda Byrd; three brothers, Xavier, Antwain and Richard Byrd; three nieces, Shazara, Xavion and Anaye Byrd; six nephews, Xavier Jr., Antwain Jr., Richard Jr., Raynard Byrd , Daquan Smith, Rakuan Lambert and a host of aunts, uncles, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ James F. Byrd

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I offer my heartfelt condolences to the family of James. Although months have passed by, we never ever forget our dear loved ones. May you continue to be comforted by the God of all comfort, and may your precious memories of James help you to cope in the days ahead. Know that one day James will come to life again in the resurrection. John 5:28,29 So always rest your hopes on God's word which he never fails to fulfill. Isaiah 55:11##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM