

James F. Harris

March 7, 1937 - February 22, 2002

James F. Harris (fondly called Baby Bear), the son of the late Forrest and Signora Garrett Harris was born in Dillwyn, Virginia on March 7, 1937. He died on February 22, 2002, after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the Buckingham County School System. He joined the Chief Corner-stone Baptist Church and remained an active member until his death. Poole and Kent employed him until he retired. Three brothers, Thomas, Howard Lee and Clifton Harris preceded him in death. He leaves to cherish his memory: one brother, Albert Harris; four sisters, Doris Bentley, Marie Childs, Mae James and Signora Patterson; two brothers-in-law, George Bentley and Shirley Patterson; one sister-in-law, Mary Harris; three stepchildren, Andre Brown, Eydie Adams and Aaron Knight; one stepson-in-law, Jerry Adams; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends including two very dear friends, Constance Foster and Clarence Burke. There's an open gate at the end of the road Through which we all must go alone, And there's a light we cannot see. Our Father claims His own Beyond the gate our loved one Finds happiness and rest And there is comfort in the thought That a loving God knows best. But there's still a great feeling of joy and comfort When our hearts are grieving and sad, We can remember again and be thankful To our God for all the sweet hours we had. Lovingly Submitted, The Family

“ Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
