

James Franklin Horne

October 27, 1934 - December 13, 2002

On Friday, December 13, 2002, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom called from labor to reward our dear beloved James Franklin Horne. He answered the call at 10:40 a.m. at Sinai Hospital following a lengthy illness. James was born on October 27, 1934 in Atlanta, Georgia. He was one of three children born to the late Ottis and Parthenia Horne. He was educated in the Atlanta, Georgia and New York Public School Systems. He served in the United States Army from May 21, 1957 to March 24, 1959 where he was honorably discharged. James was united in marriage to Emma L. Horne for over forty-three years. From this union, twins were born Teresa and Tyre Horne. He was employed at Lever Brother Inc., for more than forty years. James enjoyed following all sport events-boxing, football and basketball. He attended Catholic Churches in New York. James Father, Ottis Horne and mother, Parthenia Horne, both preceded him in death. He leaves to cherish his memory: a devoted wife, Emma L; one daughter, Teresa Horne; two sons, Tyre Horne and Ricky Walker; two brothers, Thomas and Robert Horne; sisters-in-law, Euvla Nock, Nancy Parker, Lois Hawthorne and Sandra Horne; brother-in-law, Sydnor Hawthorne; a loving and caring nephew, Clayton Nock; five nephews, nine nieces and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ James was my first cousin. I only met him and his wife one time when he visited his aunt, his mother’s sister in Detroit, around 60 years ago. I’m still connected with his mother’s family and cousin Carolyn Kelley in Covington GA. My name is Theodora after his mother’s sister. I would like to connect with his family members.
