

James Gardner

February 25, 1951 - September 16, 2007

JAMES GARDNER JR., son of Pearlie Gardner and the late James Edward Gardner, was born on February 23, 1951. He departed his life, after a brief illness, on Sunday, September 16, 2007. James began his education at Carver High School in North Carolina and later received his GED. In 2004, he was baptized and became a member of Nazareth Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend James J. Thomas. He was employed by St. Vincent DePaul as a residential supervisor at Beans and Bread. James had a very warm and outgoing personality. He was always helping others and being there when you needed him. He was very dedicated to his job. He was known for making sure whatever he started was completed. He had a very deep passion for his family and friends. He enjoyed family gatherings and social events. If anybody loved grilled food it was him. He would say, "Come on and let's get some ribs and chicken and put it on the grill." He would immediately call Mama and the family to the cookout. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Pearlie Gardner; four brothers, Jerry, Ricky, Anthony of Baltimore, Maryland, Michael of Rocky Mount, NC; two sisters, Joyce Nicholson and Euphemia Hinton of Baltimore; two brothers-in-law, Ronald Nicholson and William Hinton; two sisters-in-law, Earline Gardner and Sandy Gardner; nine nieces, four nephews, four great-nieces, sixteen great-nephews, a host of uncles, aunts and other relatives.

“ To the family, I offer my sincere condolences. No family should have to lose a loved one in death. It's truly the most sorrowful event a family has to go through. This was never God's purpose for us. When he created Adam and Eve they had the hope of everlasting life in their paradise Garden of Eden, but sadly they didn't appreciate the happiness God gave them, and because of fall into sin they passed this sad legacy on to us. Romans 5:12 speaks of this. It says" through one man(Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because they had all sinned." BUt because we serve a loving God he made the way out for us through the ransom saacrifice of his precious son Jesus. If we exercise faith in that ransom, we can still receive everlasting life by means of a ressurection. John 3:16, and Acts 24,15. As 1st Cor 15:22 says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." May you be comforted by the promises of the ressurection in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ to the family and friends of james and his dad james edward i would like to send my sincere condolences. i have lost loved one to death myself, most recently, my one year old grandson to sids two years ago. i have found much comfort and hope from God's word the Bible which promises a resurrection of those we have lost to death. john 5:28,29 and revelation 21:3,4. read psalms 72:12-14 and 16 to get a glimpse of the kind of God Jehovah is. He gave his son that we might live, not die. His word promises life on a paradise earth with no more crime violence, hunger, homelessness, poverty of any kind. no more lack of love and caring everyone will feel the love and caring in abundance in paradise with no one to cause us harm. please allow me to sit down and teach you the wonderful promises of God so that you can see that your hope of seeing your loved ones again is so real because God, who can not lie promised and it will come true. I can be reached at my e-mail address: kic2@verizon.net (John 3:16)###imported-begin###kathy commander###imported-end###
