

James Gasque Jr

January 27, 1943 - February 14, 2018

JAMES GASQUE, JR. was born on January 27, 1943 in Dillion, SC. James, affectionately known as "Jimmy" or "Mr. G.", was the firstborn son of the late James Gasque, Sr. and Jeronia (Carmichael) Gasque. After Jimmy lost his mom at an early age, God transferred the maternal mantle over to Mamie (Campbell) Gasque who graciously and lovingly continued raising Jimmy until his adulthood. He was the oldest of the Gasque children. His siblings included: Howard, Calver Lee, Carolyn, Damon, Rosetta (preceding him in death) Joann, Barbara, and Stanley.

Jimmy moved to Baltimore, Maryland at an early age where he was educated in the Baltimore City school system. He met Bessie Major and married at an early age. From this union, seven children were born: Marcus (Diane), Clifton, Patra, James, John (Leandra), Michael, Kimberly (Robert). From previous relationships, Jimmy had two sons, Darryl and Allen.

Jimmy was employed by the General Motors Corporation for 32 years until his retirement. One of his passions was drag car racing. As a result, he purchased a race car so that he and his children could enjoy the racetrack together. He was an avid sports enthusiast who loved watching football and basketball.

Jimmy was a family man and loved to attend family gatherings. He took his position as big brother seriously. He was the brother who was called all the time, helped to resolve problems and made sure the family supported each other.

He also enjoyed driving his red Cadillac around the city and hanging out with his significant other, Clarice Waters, Jimmy loved cabarets, traveling, and sharing time with friends, especially his union buddies.

He leaves to celebrate his memory: his children-seven sons, Darryl, Marcus, Clifton, Allen, James, John, Michael and two daughters, Patra and Kimberly; four brothers, Howard (Carolyn), Calver Lee (Alice), Damon (Mary), and Stanley; three sisters, Carolyn, Joann, and Barbara (Andre);thirty-one grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends including his companion Clarice Waters and his life long friend Baker.

“ *Dear James,
You took great care of your family. You patiently and kindly took care of your wife and children in so many ways. I am very proud to say that you were a wonderful neighbor for many years. I looked at you on Feb. 20th, 2018 and I must say you were very slow to age. You look as good now as you always did. You will be missed by the many who knew and cared for you. My condolences to the loved one's you left to care for you during the end times. My daughter, Jeannie, and I had an opportunity to talk to family and friends who were safely able to travel such a distance to be here for you and family. I am so proud of them and we will never forget the one's we met or the one's who loved you and family so much.*

Love and blessings to all.
