

James H. Gill

April 7, 1956 - September 22, 2017

The Obituary

James Henry Gill, 61, was born on April 7, 1956, in Richmond, Virginia to Junious and Helen Gill. He was called home to be with the Lord on September 22, 2017. He was preceded in death by his brother, Freddie Gill.

James was called “Bay” by his loved ones. James graduated from Maggie L. Walker High School in 1975, after which he was employed by E.I. Dupont for over 35 years. During employment at Dupont, Bay received a prestigious award for contributing to build Kevlar Teflon bullet resistant vests which aided in police protection and service. Bay was not only a dedicated employee, but an entrepreneur and inventor. He invented and received a certificate from the United States Patent and Trademark Office for his invention “Car Pal” design, which was created as a baby accessory organizer and to entertain children.

He was married to Ruth for 38 years. He loved spending time with his children, nieces and nephews. He was a man that brought joy to his family with a wonderful sense of humor, a man with purpose. His dedication to family was unsurpassed. Bay was a living example of love and joy. He always had a glorious smile and expressed words of encouragement.

He loved to build, design, swim and watch action movies. He was passionate about his family, fishing and seafood. Some called him the “Grill Gill Master.” Whenever the family or church had cookouts he was always the one with the grill, ready to show off his grilling skills.

He joined church at an early age. He attended Second Liberty Baptist Church and New Covenant Community Church. He was an active member of the Men of Integrity Ministry, where fathers, sons and husbands gather to praise God.

He leaves to cherish his memory a loving wife, Ruth C. Gill; daughters, Andrea “Nikki” Gill Carey (Shannon) and Christina L. Gill, Esq.; three grandchildren, Ikaika, Skylar and Khaleesi Carey; parents, Junious and Helen Gill; brothers, Bernard (Carolyn), Edward (Katrina), Charles (Wanda); and sisters, Mary Taylor (Thomas) and Evangelist Louise Edwards; a host of other relatives and friends.
