

James Gladden

September 9, 1935 - April 17, 2007

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away.” — Revelations 21:4

JAMES GLADDEN, son of the late James and Maggie Gladden, was born on September 9, 1935 in Chester, South Carolina. After a lengthy illness he departed this life on April 18, 2007. James received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools. He became employed with the Baltimore City Department of Education where he was a dedicated employee for thirty-seven years. James, affectionately known as Slim to family and close friends, could be found after a hard day’s work relaxing on the couch doing his favorite pastime, watching T.V. He leaves to mourn one sister, Bernice Lyde of Baltimore; two brothers, Sam Gladden and William Gladden, both of Baltimore; (two brothers and one sister preceded him in death, John Gladden, Norman Gladden and Patricia Gladden); two sisters-in-law, Brenda Gladden and Sharon Gladden, both of Baltimore; three nieces, Debra Mason, Novella Ables and Samantha Gladden, all of Baltimore; one nephew, William Gladden Jr. of Baltimore; a special cousin of New Jersey, Macy Garden; along with his best friend, Garfield Griffin; and a host of other relatives and friends. Lovingly,
The Family

“ Hello ! Gladden's ! May I send my condolences to you all, the family and & friends. I am from Chester, South Caroline. I have in-laws who are Gladden, Frank, bernice. You all may know the Mobley' s who lived on Oak Street. Death breaks the circle of life for all of mankind. Sickness is all around us and unforeseen things happen every second of the day. Our heavenly knows how you all are fairly and is there to give comfort. May knowing that others care help to heal the pain of losing a dear love one. Imagine the happiness that will reslut when dead loved ones are resurrected. I am looking forward to that happening and I know you are too. May all the treasure memories of James support your faith in our creator.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." Very soon that time will come to welcome our loved ones back to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:3-5, Psalm 37:29) May you receive much comfort and strength from these promises of Jehovah God and his son Jesus Christ. (John 17:3)###imported-begin###Hill###imported-end##
