

James Arthur Green

December 13, 1939 - July 2, 2018

JAMES ARTHUR GREEN was born in Bethesda, North Carolina on December 13, 1939 to Thomas and Bessie Green. James was the fourth of five children. He departed this life and entered eternal rest on Monday, July 2, 2018 in Baltimore, Maryland.

James was affectionately known as "Uncle James" or "James" to all his family and friends.

James received his early education in North Carolina.

James came to Baltimore after completing high school. He worked different jobs until working at The State of Maryland Office Building for the Department of General Services. James worked as a supply clerk until his retirement. He retired in 2003 after 32 years of service.

James was a very happy person, he always loves to laugh. When you saw him, he always had that famous smile. Sometimes he would say something to you and then say "Why Not" with a smile. James loved to go to Cabarets, dancing, eating his famous meat "chicken", drink his favorite drink "Bud", and having fun.

James was preceded in death by his daughter, Oliva Green; and 3 brothers,

Harvey Lee Green, William Green and Thomas Green.

He is survived by his longtime companion, Sarah Lee Roger; brother, Samuel Teel, Sr. (Bessie Teel); his grand kids, and a host of nieces and nephews.
