“ I humbly offer my humble sincere Condolences to his family. I recently learned of his passing through a mutual friend. I am so grateful that I had the privilege and the opportunity to have met Bro Green in April of 1990 at the Dill Ave Church of Christ, where I became a Member. Bro Green was an encouraging and an inspiration to my young Christian Walk. I looked forward to each and every Monday Nights at 7:00pm.

Bro Green & Bro Stan Miles were the New Convert Teachers. Bro Green was always so excited, not only during the New Convert Class, but all of the time. Bro Green was a no nonsense Christian Man. Bro Green would do mostly whatever he could do for anyone. Bro Geeen offered me Employment to work alongside with him at his Own Company. I wasn't Employed, and Bro Green gave me an opportunity.

Bro Green was a Blessing to me and my Wife. Me and Bro Green had had many many long talks about the Gospel and the Church of Christ. Bro Green was one of many individuals who had be a motivator in my decision to attend Southwestern Christian College to become a Gospel Preacher, of which I succeeded in doing. I am only so sorry that I wasn't at his Home going.
