“ Mr. Jones, you will be truly missed by your family and friends. Even though I wasn't family, I still loved you as though you was my grandfather. God bless you and your family.##imported-begin##Dineshia##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy. Even when a person lives as long as Mr. Jones did, it's no less painful when the family has to say goodbye to their loved one. It was God's intention for people to live forever. When we look at the life span of people who lived long ago; some living to be 800 and 900 years old, it helps us to see God's purpose clearly. Adam and Eve lost out on eternal life for us, but lovingly Jehovah God purposes to restore everlasting life to us through the ransom of his Son, Christ Jesus. As John 3:16 says, "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten Son so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." One day all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of Jesus and come out to everlasting life. May the hope of the resurrection sustain you, and comfort you in the difficult days ahead##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ May I take this time to send my deepest sympathy to you all. Losing Mr. James broke the family circle recently .Mr. James would have been 80 years young this past September 25 ,07. The bible say at Ps.90:10 that some of us would live to be 70 years old and others 80 years because of speiacl mightness,like Mr. James. Today there is so much illness, old age, pain, crime, sorrow ,etc. It will be wonferfull when no one will ever die again, great news to hear, and just think see. I am looking forward to that happening. May all the happy times spent with Mr. James remain close. Sincerely,
Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
