

James H. Reed

September 1, 1942 - December 21, 2001

James H. Reed Jr., lovingly also known as “Sugarcake,” was born September 1, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland, to Mildred and the late James Henry Reed, Sr. God’s grace gave James’ life extension to December 21, 2001. James (Sugarcake) fought furiously for his life during this last period of his time here with us. Those of us who came to his sick room saw a valiant spirit encased in a declining body touch each of us in a loving manner, giving us the time and strength to begin the process of giving him back to God in a valiant manner, as he would so wish us to do. He was employed by Parriser’s Bakery, Schmidt’s Baking Company, Schaeffer and American Brewing Company and lastly, Esskay Meat Company. Sugarcake was a loving and fun filled person. Incidents of laughter initiated by him will be fondly remembered! Especially noteworthy was his easygoing personality. He was helpful to friends and all who knew him. He also had a special fond appreciation for pigeons and dogs, especially Geena his dog for many years. Sugarcake leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Mildred Reed; three sisters, Betty Bell, Barbara Reed and Janice Hussey; three brothers, Ralph, Eugene and Donald Reed; two stepdaughters, LaFrance and Latasha Dawkins. Also he leaves to cherish his memory seven grandchildren and his beloved life-long mate, Bertha Dawkins; and a host of other relatives and friends, of special mentioning, his friends at “The Clubhouse!” Preceding him in death was his son Marvin and two brothers, William K. Reed (Wee Wee) and Gordon M. Reed (Mike). In my Father’s house are many mansions. If it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. I will come again and receive you unto myself.

That where I am you may be also. –John 14:2 Lovingly submitted, The Family
