

James Harvey Sr.

September 3, 1940 - August 12, 2019

James Harvey Sr. was born to the late Marque and Eula Harvey on September 3, 1940 in Baltimore, MD. He was called to his eternal rest August 13, 2019 after a lengthy illness.

James was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. With the strong characteristics of being raised in Cherry Hill, James was determined to make an honest living immediately after school. This determination led him to work as a dedicated employee of Dover Poultry in the poultry handling services department. His career continued at Cloverland Dairy as a machinist. After 30 faithful years with Cloverland Dairy, James retired with this company.

James fell in love and married Dorothy Mae Blair August 2, 1988. Together, the couple were the definition of a good time. The two were known to have the house that everyone loved to gather; a house full of love, laughter, and getting down to good music. James and Dorothy loved to party together with endless dancing. The couple also loved to spend time together at the casino. James was known to be the card king with his best game being pinochle.

James was preceded in death by one daughter, Kimberly; two brothers, Clifton and Cornell Harvey; and two sisters, Caroline and Carey Harvey.

James leaves to cherish his memory and carry on his legacy: three devoted children, James Jr., Yolanda (Aaron Sr.), Calvin; Ten lovely grandchildren; William IV, Elijahwa (Tyrese), Tia, Tyrell, Aaron Jr., Erica, Taj, Kaiyr, Kawaun (Chris), Billie; and Four divine great-grandchildren, Alyanah, Kayne, Kaylen, and Kingston. One aunt; Emma Green; James leaves a host of nieces, nephews friends. James has a special niece, Toni, that keeps the the Harvey family together.
