

James Edward Harvin

April 16, 1935 - September 30, 2013

JAMES EDWARD HARVIN, son of the late Frank Harvin and Edna Magwood Harvin, departed this life on Monday, September 30, 2013, after a lengthy illness.

He was born on April 16, 1935 in Sumter, South Carolina. "Prince" as he was affectionately called, received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. While attending he studied Machine Shop, as well as Tool and Die at Carver High School and later attended Baltimore City Community College (formally CCB) and graduated with an Electronics Degree in 1981.

James served in the Air Force as an Airman and Aircraft Crash Rescue Fire Fighter. After serving his country, he began his employment with Carpentier Gaiffe et Rochefort "CGR", which is now Northrup Grumman, as an Engineer and retired after completing over thirty years of years of service. He was also the entrepreneur of Spaceage Electronics.

He was joined in holy matrimony in June, 1969 to Mattie Martha Buie who preceded him in being called home. From this union he was blessed with two daughters, LaTonya and Yalonda. He also leaves to mourn his daughter Catrina and took pride in raising his great-great-nephew Domenic Sparks.

James was a devoted husband and father. He sought to make his home comfortable for his family and was always delighted with their presence. James was admired, loved and respected not only by his children, but also by extended family and friends. He began working for Manheim auto Auction and Wal-mart where he made numerous friends along the way.

James leaves to cherish his precious memory: his children, LaTanya, Yolanda and Catina; his sister, Frances Harvin, and his brother, Frank Harvin; four sisters-in-law, Barbara A. Harvin, Iron Richburg, Susie and Zelda Buie; four brothers-in-law, Lensey Hamilton, Sr., William, Leodis and Adell Buie; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

James was also preceded in death by his sister, Ida Hamilton; and two brothers, Kiah Harvin, Sr. and George Harvin.

“ Dear Harvin Family;

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one.

Death is an enemy to all mankind and who can understand it? It can and dose have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline: "When Death Is Swallowed Up Forever..." What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states, "And he (God) Will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitled "What Hope For Dead Loved Ones"? I am not selling anything or conducting any business of any sort, not now or ever. I am just showing Neighborly love like what (Mark 12:31) mentions. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences and my the God of peace be with you and your family.

*Sincerely Yours,
Brandy Molina*

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
