

James Adolph Hicks

June 26, 1923 - October 6, 2014

JAMES A. HICKS SR. was born in Baltimore, MD on June 26, 1923 and was called home on October 6, 2014 after a lengthy illness.

James was one born to the late Mabel Parker and Edward Harris. He received his education at St. Peter Claver Catholic School and Frederick Douglass Senior High School in Baltimore.

He married the late Helen Hicks and out of this union six children were born, Patricia, James, Thomas, Wayne, Veronica, and Joseph. He retired from Sealtest Dairy after 35 years of service. James was a lifelong and active member of St. Peter Claver Catholic Church until his time of illness. He made a difference in many lives through his contributions while serving with St. Vincent DePaul Society as President, on the Parish Council as altar server on Saturdays and at funerals. He always participated in annual fish fries with his wife, Helen, and continued to do so after her death. James was also a faithful member of Bible study classes and held office with the Holy Name Society. He will always be known for his famous biscuits. James made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn: daughter Patricia Bailey, two sons Wayne and Joseph Hicks, son-in-law Charles Bailey, two daughters-in-law Daphne and Annette, one sister Edith Dennis, nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and a host of devoted family members and friends. He was preceded in death by his wife: Helen Hicks, two sons James and Thomas Hicks, one daughter Veronica Hicks, sister Joyce Parker, step brother William Parker, and sister-in-law Irene Parker.

“ To my wonderful Hicks family. Your dad, my uncle and a friend to countless many is resting in the Glory of God... He ran a great race, he fought a fabulous fight and gave us guidance and love. What more could we ask for? Uncle Adolph, thanks for the memories that give me hope in what a husband, father and brother is supposed to exude. Francis Mitchell
