

James D. Holdclaw

April 17, 1942 - October 6, 2012

JAMES D. HOLDCLAW, son of the late Chester and Elizabeth Holdclaw, was born on April 17, 1942 in Wilmington, North Carolina. The family moved to Baltimore, Maryland when James was four years of age. James was also known as “Jimmy.”

Jimmy was an A student until he reached the age of fourteen. That’s when he became ill.

Jimmy always had a hearty chuckle and you could count on him always asking for $1.00 or a cigarette. He was also known for saying, “That’s right.” He loved to walk – you may have seen him in Lexington Market at any given time. He had a hearty appetite and loved good food.

James leaves to mourn: four sisters, Annie R. Allen, Marion E. Rivers, Margaret Holzclaw and Joan F. Cook; two younger brothers, Ernest B. Holdclaw and Ronald W. Holdclaw; sister-in-law, Susan Holdclaw; uncle, Leo Ward; two aunts, Alice Ward and Eliza Jane Dukes; sixteen nieces and nephews, eighteen great nieces and –nephews, ten great-great-nieces and –nephews and three great-great-great-nieces and –nephews. Jimmy also leaves two devoted friends, Yvonne Dessasaur and Toya Walker.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
