

James Lee Howard

September 11, 1948 - July 6, 2020

JAMES L. HOWARD, son of the late Nora Lee Howard and Johnny Howard was born in FROST Proof, Florida on September 11, 1948. He departed this life on July 6, 2020 after a short illness.

James received his education in Baltimore City Public School System. In September 1968, he proudly joined the United States Air Force where he served as a civil engineer until being honorably discharged in 1971.

He joined civilian life and worked as a program assistant at Second Genesis, he was an administrative coordinator at Anne Arundel residential program and he was a dedicated supervisor at MCVET training center.

James was a long-standing and faithful member of the Morning Star Baptist Church. He joined the choir and was the tenor that everyone loved to hear. He could also be found volunteering in the bookstore and disciplining for the Men's Ministry lending a positive word to others. He will wholeheartedly be missed.

He married Marlene Howard and out of that union came two beautiful children Kenyetta and Nickkola.

He is preceded in death by his mother, father, and brother, Lonnie Howard

He leaves to mourn his wife, Marlene Howard; daughters Kenyetta G.M. Hammond (JESSIE) ,Nickkola J.Norwood,LaVera Howard, one sister, Fannie Johnson; three grandsons, Kameron Deener, Tywone Brown, Karlo Norwood; one granddaughters, Kamaya Deener and Londyn Brown; one special cousin, Pauline; other cousins, nieces, nephews and a host of other family and friends.

“ My most memorable story that uncle Jimmy told me was how he gave me my nickname of "Mooch". When I toddler, he had something that I wanted. I waited until he fell asleep on the sofa and I bit his nose and took his snacks. Unc, you and you since of CLASSY are sorely missed. We are so proud that God loaned you to us for just a little while. Rest in His arms. I love you, Mooch 😭💕
