

James Ira Moore

January 17, 1958 - May 25, 2004

James Ira Moore, the second son of James Earl Moore and the late Stella Hill Moore was born in Baltimore, Maryland on January 17, 1958. He departed this life on Tuesday, May 25, 2004 when God welcomed him home. He received his education from Northern High School in Baltimore, Maryland. After graduation, he began work at Western Electric until the plant closed its doors. Sherman Williams next employed him for many years until a back injury prevented him from working. Tinka, as he was affectionately called, was a fun-loving person who liked to joke and tell stories. He was an avid comic book collector and loved to read novels as well as comics from his collection. He also spent many hours playing video games. Tinka made numerous friends and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn and cherish his memory: a loving father, James Earl; two brothers, Vernon and Francis Lee, Sr.; a sister, Sheila Faye; a sister-in-law, Keisa; a niece, Natalie Frances; a nephew, Francis Lee, Jr., a devoted friend of 20 years, Ms. Deborah Dunaway; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
