

James Irvin Swann

April 9, 1956 - August 7, 2002

James Irvin Swann, Sr. departed this life unexpectedly on August 7, 2002 at St. Agnes Hospital. He was the son of James Doll Swann Jr. and the late Barbara Bernice Swann. James was better known as Irvin. He was born on April 9, 1956 and graduated from Edmondson High School in 1973. He also attended Baltimore Community College. While living in Baltimore he worked as a vendor at General Motors and was also employed at Morgan State University. On August 3, 1995, Irvin and Rhonda White were married. This union continued until his death. Irvin and his family relocated to Salisbury, Maryland for several years. While residing in Salisbury he worked at the Quality Royal Foods Company. Later he and his family joined and became active members of the Salisbury Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Perdue. Irvin was a fun loving, friendly and outgoing person who was the "life of the party" and he will be sorely missed. To remember him always are the members of his family and his circle of friends. His survivors include his wife, Rhonda Swann; three sons, Andre, James Jr. and Jason Swann; two daughters, Victoria White and Jessica Swann; a loving father, James Doll Swann Jr.; a devoted stepmother, Phyllis Swann; one sister, Valeria Swann; two remaining brothers; Don Swann of Virginia and Rodney Tyrone Swann; two grandchildren, Ramonte and Jada Swann; one aunt, Cora Lee Faulkner; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
