

James Isaac Davis

April 5, 1920 - March 26, 2008

James Isaac Davis was born to the late Richard Edward and Lessie Ann Davis on April 5, 1920 in Wilson County, North Carolina. He departed his life on March 26, 2008 after a brief illness. He attended the public schools in Wilson County. In his early years, he was a member of St. Rose Holiness Church. In 1949 James met and married the late Sadie Raye Maultsby and they moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Six children were born to this union. James was employed at Bethlehem Corporation in Sparrow's Point, Maryland for more than 35 years, retiring in 1984. He joined Calvary Baptist Church in 1959 where he served as Trustee and Boy Scout Leader for many years. In his later years, he joined Grace Baptist Church and attended whenever his health permitted. James was an avid hunter and fisherman. He would cook anything that he caught or hunted, and loved to surprise family members with his mysterious dishes. Cooking North Carolina barbecue and "Slumgunion" stew were two of his specialties. He adored his grandchildren, nieces and nephews and gave a special pet name to each one of them. He spent hours every day talking to all of them and offering his special brand of humor and wisdom. He leaves to treasure his memory, six children, Evelyn Okehie, Angelina {Sam} Anyan, James T. Davis, Bernie Davis, Maurice {Alexis} Davis and Lorraine Davis; one sister, Gladys Davis Blackwell; one aunt, Margaret Davis Taylor; two sisters-in-law, Virginia Monroe and Geneva McCoy; twelve grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ James Isaac Davis

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ It's a little over a year since Mr. Davis passing. He sounds like a loving and caring person. Death is an absence of life. The bible draws the contrast at Romans 6:23, 'the wages sin pays is death, but the gift of God gives is everlasting life.' Many wonder then, what is the condition of the dead? Are my dead love one suffering? The bible explains at Ecclesiates 9:5; 'the living are conscious that they will die, but as for the dead, they are conscious of NOTHING at all.' They are in a deep sleep awaiting for the resurrection hope promised at John 5:28,29. My deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Gonsalves##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hello ! Davis ! I would like to send fellow feeling to you all. Lossing a very dear love one after 88 years breaks the circle of life. Living for a long time help to build our love for our creator and all the wonderfull things he does for us in small and big ways.In the future we will not loss our dear love in death, Isa.25:8. 66:13. May the gift of memories that was shared with Mr. James and you all keep supporting and uplifting you all on the journey of life each day.##imported-begin##I.C.##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mr. Davis. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM