

James Jackson

May 21, 1947 - October 26, 2019

Legacy of Love

James Jackson, was born on May 21, 1947 to the late Adam Jackson and the late Viola Jackson. On Saturday, October 26, 2019, the Lord sent an angel to seek out James. His name was called and the angel took him by the hand and said his place was ready in heaven far above, and that he would have to leave behind all those I dearly loved. He was preceded in death by his siblings, Carolyn Jackson and Phillip Jackson.

James was reared in Long Island, New York, later moving to Richmond, Virginia. He graduated from Armstrong High School and furthered his education and received his master's degree. He was a dedicated member of St. John's Baptist Church. He was a proud veteran of the US Marine Corps. James was also a fire fighter for the Richmond City Fire Department, retiring after 30 years of service as a lieutenant.

Traveling was James's hobby. He joined the Virginia Camping Cardinals RV club and took joy in traveling across the country.

The joy of his personality was shared with his children and those he encountered. He touched many in his own special way and was loved by his family. James, a man of the most tender spirit — a man whose tender spirit radiated with many.

In life, James accomplished many things. He was first and foremost a loving father. He was very family oriented and as long as his grandchildren was good, he was good. He was a big believer of energy, a very fashionable person, charismatic and full of life.

James instilled values and truths that will last a lifetime and will forever be remembered.

James, a gift to us all, still lives.

He leaves to cherish his memories a devoted partner in life Betty Cosby; daughters, Angela Evans (Torrance), Tameka Scott (Shaune) and devoted Latoya Jackson; stepdaughter, Zina Cosby; stepson, Corey Cosby; siblings, Gloria Jackson (Edward), Douglas Jackson and Dennis Jackson; devoted uncle, Ronnie Faines; five grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and caring friends; among them, devoted James Rhem, Howie (HP) Smith, Floyd Brown and George Taylor.

“ My condolences to the family for the loss of your love one. My dad (James Rhem Sr) and James Jackson were like brothers and he was loved by all. James was a cool well dressed guy and always had a smile on his face. He also taught me alot about home improvements and he would sit down and have a talk about life. James was like an uncle to my brother (Curtis) and I and would help anyone who needed help and called on him. James Jackson, may you rest in peace and may God bless your family and keep them safe.
