

James L. Jefferson

November 29, 1951 - March 12, 2014

JAMES (ABDUL WALEED) JEFFERSON, son of the late Herbert M. and Naomi Jefferson, was born on November 29, 1951 in New York City, New York. He departed this life on March 12, 2014 after a lengthy illness. He received his education at Fairmount Heights School in Washington D.C. He also spent several years as a young man in New York City where he lived with family members.

He married Elissha (Parks) Jefferson in 1980 and again in 2001. Together they raised three three stepsons, Damon Carter, Sr., Donald Carter, Jr. and Dwight Carter, Sr. James also has a daughter, Ashley Heath.

He is survived by: his wife, Elissha; his three stepsons and daughter, Ashley; thirteen grandchildren, eight great- grandchildren; sisters, Juanita, Jennifer and Jacki; several nephews, including Jemal Jefferson; many more nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

James was a devout Muslim and accepted Islam early in his life, at age nineteen. Those of us who knew him well loved him dearly despite his stubbornness.

We all wish him well on his journey from this life to the next with love and hope that Allah receives him with peace and rest.

A Salaamu Alaikum (Peace Be Unto You)

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.
