“ Greetings Mrs. Jiggetts, On behalf of the G. C. Hawley Class of 1965, we extend belated and sincere sympathy to your family in the loss of your husband, the children's father and our classmate. We searched diligently to find someone who could extend information to our class after hearing of " Jiggetts' homegoing. We left several messages at your home number but never received a return call. We have jut received that information on 4/12/2015. We were deeply sadden to learn that he would not be here to share in our 50th Class Reunion. Please contact me at mrsprpht@yahoo.com. we would like to send our official condolences and hope your family has been comforted daily by the only one who can give absolute peace and comfort, the Lord Jesus Christ.

“ James was a wonderful friend to me during my days at Duke. I was shocked and saddened to hear just yesterday of his passing. Until last year we shared cards and occasional phone calls to keep up with each other. He seemed so happy in his retirement in Baltimore. I'm glad I have all the Duke pictures we took and the trinkets he gave me . When my boyfriend and I took out-of-town trips, he would always say, "ok, let's go ahead and get James's gift"
My heart goes out to all of you. I wish I had known sooner.
Sincerely,
Pam Dobson
