

James William Jones

October 1, 1937 - December 12, 2012

JAMES WILLIAM JONES was the son of the late James and Emma Lee Jones. He was born on October 1, 1937 in Clarksville, Virginia. He departed this life on December 12, 2012. James was also known as "Pete". James attended Baltimore County Public Schools. He was employed with The Maryland Drydock and the Baltimore City Sanitation Department for several years. James loved fishing and he also was very funny; boy could he make you laugh.

He received the Lord as his personal Savior at the Lighthouse Ministries under the late Pastor James Brooks. He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him.

James leaves to cherish his memory: his favorite cousins, Gaybelle Comer and Destiny Williams; sister-in-law, Sandra Jones; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ *Still going thru the shock of your passing. No words can replace how we feel, other than thank you for being the father we needed in our life. The memories you left are truly embedded in our hearts and soul forever. Not being informed of your passing was hurtful, but you would strongly want us to find in our hearts to move on with the love you instilled in us as a family. Please give our mother your wife of (30 years) Dorothy Jones a hug. In spirit you'll always be with us. Love you always,

“Pete, Your cousins (Ann & Brother) loved you dearly! We know that you loved us dearly, Oh! How we could hardly wait for you to arrive for the summers in the country with us. We know that you loved us dearly, as you told me (Ann) just a few days before you went to be with the Lord. We were excluded from the obituary. We know that you would want us to be included in your going home service. We know you as a forgiving person & you would not want us to be upset at the family members (same relations as us) that plan your service without asking or sharing with us. THE LORD KNOWS: RIP sweet COUSIN.

“We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
