

James Junior Reed

October 26, 1964 - October 4, 2006

Mr. James Junior Reed, the son of Mrs. Joyce Reed Johnson and the late Mr. Charles Reed, was born on October 26, 1964 in Baltimore, Maryland as a young boy James attended The House of God Church with his mother and siblings. He also joined Take Me Higher Ministries under the pastorship of Reverend Janice Collins. (Pig) James received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was employed at several industrial companies, including Walbrook Lumber Mill. Pig was quite handy and would attempt to fix anything around the house. Pig had "a heart of gold," and if he could give you anything, he would. No one would go without. Pig loved the kids, his nieces and nephews meant the world to him. Then a few years ago he was blessed with two sons of his own (DeAndre and Donte). Pig and his brothers and sisters were extremely close to one another, however his bond with Ronald was really a special one. They did everything together. God gently closed his eyes on Wednesday, October 4, 2006. He leaves to cherish his memory: two sons, DeAndre and Donte; his mother, Joyce Reed Johnson; father of thirty-eight years, Eddie Johnson Sr.; four brothers, Steve Reed, Ricky Reed, Ronald Reed and Eddie Johnson; three sisters, Joyce Wilson, Frances Johnson and Angela Rowe; one sister-in-law, Van Reed; two brothers-in-law, Maurice Wilson and Derrick Rowe; six aunts, eight uncles from Tabor City, N.C., ten nieces four nephews, six great-nephews, one great-niece, and a host of cousins and friends.

“ Hi ! Reed's ! May I take this time to express fellow feeling in the death of James. When we lose a dear one in death it can be unbearable at times. We can find comfort from our Heavenly Father in all our tribulations as 2 Cor. 1:3 say. I am looking forward to the time when death will be no more and we can live forever, good news in deed. I hope these few thoughts have been uplifting and postive. Sincerely, Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. May the scriptures encourage you doing your time of grief. Jesus demonstrated the resurrection hope at John 11:38-44 with the account of Lazarus. We too can be comforted in knowing that the resurrection hope is real so we have much to look forward to.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Reed. No doubt losing a love one in death is painful and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. However, Christ Jesus taught that someday "all those in the memorial tombs" will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29) Yes, it is truly heartwarming to learn that Almighty God Jehovah and his son Jesus yearns to bring our dead love ones back to life. May these words of encouragement help you during this time of bereavement.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To Ms. Rowe, I too have felt sorrow and grief from the loss of a sibling. I have been able to find comfort from the wonderful promises in God's Word, The Bible at John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15. May these be a source of comfort to you as well.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
