

James Lee Kidd Sr.

October 11, 1932 - June 27, 2017

James Lee Kidd, Sr. was born in Gladstone, Virginia (Nelson County) on October 13, 1932 to the late Mable and Melvin Kidd. He was called home to the gates of heaven to be with his loved ones on June 27, 2017. James is preceded in death by his wife Blanche Louise Kidd; three sisters, Ethel Kidd, Irene Kidd and Zella Kidd.

He attended the Richmond Public School System and went to Booker T. Washington High School. For five years, James was a member of Great Moriah Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia.

He was formally employed at the Richmond Newspapers Inc. on Franklin Street as a maintenance engineer supervisor. He later retired after 22 years of dedicated service to the company.

James married the love of his life and dear friend, Blanche Louise Daniels. They married on April 25, 1950 where they remained married for 52 wonderful years.

James was not only a remarkable father of three, but also a wonderful grandfather and brother that loved to work. James was a master chef in the family home and his speciality was making homemade rolls, fried apples and especially pancakes. The aroma of something cooking in the kitchen was often smelled when you walked in the front door. James was a wise man that believed in education and working hard. He enjoyed math and spelling and pushed his children to succeed and be the best that they could be as adults. He is survived by his one daughter, Zenodia Rhem (Terry); two sons, James

Lee Kidd Jr. and Anthony Kidd (Marie); six grandchildren, Keith Donell Kidd, Dante Kidd, India Perlita Kidd Smith (Jospeh), LaVon Berry, Xavier Kidd and Ebony Kidd; eleven great-grandchildren; three sisters, Mamie Tinsley, Jean Franklin and Dorthea Meggins; a host of other relatives and friends.

He will be remembered for his gentle, kind disposition, and all the love he has always shown his family.
