

James J. Knox

April 16, 1958 - February 6, 2018

James Junior Knox, better known as "Jimmy" was the son of the late James Charles Knox and Annie Mae Guilyard. He was adopted by the late Ethel Wilson. Born April 16, 1958 in Baltimore, MD. He was suddenly taken on February 6, 2018 at Saint Agnes Hospital.

Growing up as a child Jimmy was very out spoken, known for keeping the peace, he liked to tell jokes to brighten up anyone's day, whether it be a stranger, family or friends. He had a major love for his children, sports and women.

Jimmy always had a love for Christ on his bed of affliction he always acknowledge Christ and the love Christ had for him. He would always sing "Yes Jesus Loves Me" in assurance that Jesus Christ was his Lord and Savior. He wasn't a member of any specific fellowship but he loved being around people and good fellowship of those who had a love for Christ.

He received his education from Baltimore Public Schools.

As a pass time, Jimmy enjoyed riding his bike, spending time with his daughter and brothers also capturing photos of the essence of life. He was overjoyed when he was reunited with his son's.

He was preceded in death by his Mother Annie Mae, Father James Charles, Adopted Mother Ethel Wilson, Eldest son Randy.

Jimmy leaves to cherish his memories: His Best friend and only Daughter Apryl, Two Sons Robert, Raymond, One Son in law Marvin, Two Grandsons, Three Granddaughters, Four Extended Daughters, Five Brothers, Micheal, Meechie, Timmy, Kevin, Eric, Two Nieces, One Nephew and a host of other Relatives and Friends.
