

James L. Edwards

July 15, 1939 - September 14, 2001

James Lenwood Edwards, son of the late Viola Edwards Spencer and John Jessup, was born on July 5, 1939 in Lancaster, Virginia. He departed this life on September 14, 2001 and remains deeply cherished by his family. He received his education at Frederick Douglas High School in Baltimore. Upon completion of his education he entered the U.S. Army in 1961, serving six years. Following his career in the service he was employed with American Smelting, Co., Bethlehem Steel, FMC Chemical Corporation, and most recently spent 20 years with CSX Railroad. He married the former Diane Strater and out of this union four children were born, Domonica, Tyra, Christina and Nathan. James was a cheerful soul who made numerous friends wherever he went and will be deeply and sincerely missed by all that knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man. He leaves to mourn: his wife; Diane, one son; Colin Nathan, three daughters; Domonica, Tyra, Christina, one son-in-law; David Krause, and grand-daughter Zoe Olivia Edwards-Krause and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Dear Mrs. Edwards and Family, The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood. Sincerely, The March Family and Staff##imported-begin##Victor March##imported-end##
