

James L. Wright

June 10, 1931 - September 28, 2002

James L. Wright, son of the late Jack Johnson and Lillie May Wright, was born on June 10, 1931 in Imporia, Virginia. He departed this life after a lengthy illness on September 28, 2002. He received his education in Virginia in the public school system. After coming to Baltimore at the age of sixteen, he worked at the Maryland Shipyard at Sparrow Point and several other jobs, but the job that he really cherished was at Morgan State University where he was a shipping and receiving clerk for twenty-five years until he retired. Jimmy, as his wife fondly called him, was very fond of having cook outs because he loved to eat and be around people. He leaves to mourn: his devoted wife of thirty years, Ida May Wright; four sons, William H. Wright, Deon L. Wright, Derrick, C. Wright and Diverel J. Wright; one daughter, Latonya R, Wright; nine grandchildren, four great-grandchild, one sister, Beulah Morgan of Imporia, Virginia; two sisters-in-law, Arthur Rivers and Roosevelt Connor al of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of nieces, nephews, and so many friends.

Tribute Wall

“ James L. Wright

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ James L. Wright

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ The tears that dampen our eyes in time of mourning are tears of homesickness, tears of longing for our loved ones. But it is we who are away from home, not they! Death has been for them a doorway to an eternal home. They are still with us, lovingly and tenderly waiting for the day when we, too, will enter the doorway of our eternal home. It is such a mistake to see death as separation and nothing more. For us who believe, death is a preparation for eternal union with those we love, in peace and in joy.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM