

James Langford Ballard

July 9, 1946 - December 18, 2008

James Langford Ballard called by nickname "Hardrock" was born July 9, 1946 to the late Eugene Langford Ballard and Mary Elizabeth Moody Ballard. He went home to be with the Lord on December 18, 2008 after battling a lengthy illness. He attended Baltimore City Public Schools. He worked as a laborer and held his last job with Mid-Town Community. James enjoyed sports, music and old western movies, but most of all he enjoyed family gatherings. He was loved by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn, his wife, Karen Divers-Ballard, four sons, James Jr., Gregory, the twins, Kevin and Kavin, two daughters, Jackie and Elin and a host of grandchildren, two brothers, Eugene Jr. and Raymond Ballard, two sisters, Betty and Gloria Ballard, four sisters-in-law, Rosalyn, Charles, Katina and La Vera, eight brothers-in-law, Aldinno, Kavin, Andre, La Vel, Rodney, Norman, Earl, Chopine and one mother-in-law, Mrs. Naomi Divers and a host of Nieces, Nephews, Cousins and Friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". 1 Corinthians 15:26 reveals that our "enemy death" will be "destroyed". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To The Ballard Family, Please accept my sincerest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. Rev21:3-4 talks about a time when death, pain and mourning will be no more and I hope you are able to find comfort in this. The Bible also tells us for a time when we will be able to welcome back ones who have falled asleep in death by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29). I know that the God of all comfort will sustain you durinig this difficult time (1Cor1:3-4). C. Murphy##imported-begin##Mrs. C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I wish to send my warm and heartfelt condolences at this most difficult time. The bible promises that God will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. As for our loved ones who have died, Jehovah promises that they will be ressurected back to life. Pour out your hearts to him in your sorrow, because he cares so much for you and knows your pains. 1st Peter 5:7. he also promises that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, because these former things will have passed away. Rev 21:4. May you be comforted and strengthened by this hope of the ressurection. If you would like to gain additional knoledge of Jehovah's purpose, please contact me at my e-mail address.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
