

James Lee Waller

March 4, 1951 - February 27, 2008

James A. Lee Waller, Sr., son of Thelma Curtis (Baker) and the late James Waller, was born on March 4, 1951 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on February 27, 2008, after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the Baltimore City School System. Wally and he was known to his family and friends, worked as a paperboy in his early years. He enjoyed flying kites, making and riding skate boxes and piecing together 10 speed bikes. James took pride in how crafty he was with his hands. He worked several other jobs in later years until his health began to fail him. Wally was a loner; though he had several cousins he would enjoy spending time with; Peanut, George Jr., and Bernard, also two special friends; Butch and Roxo. His brother Ronald V. Curtis precedes him in death. He leaves to cherish his memory; his mother, Thelma Curtis, one son, James L. Waller, Jr., one daughter, Kim V. Breeden (three grandchildren, five great-grandchildren), four brothers; Paul Waller, Sidney, Will and Roger (John) Curtis; four sisters; Vernita Cox, Mary Garris, Shirley and Rose Curtis; nieces, nephews and their children; two brothers-in-law; Melvin Cox and James Garris; five aunts, two uncles, one great aunt, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family, I send my condolences on your loss. Although I didn't know him personally, I'd like to extend a word of comfort to the family. Jehovah God has a wonderful purpose to end sickness and death forever. He never desired this for mankind from the beginning. That is why 1st Cor 15:26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Death is truly our worst enemy, because it breaks up the family circle. Noone wants to see their family members leave them. It is so heartbreaking to deal with. Soon Jesus will ressurect the dead, because Jehovah has given him all authority to do this. Please read John 5:26-29. One day our dead loved ones will live again by means of the ressurection, and if we exercise faith in the ransom Jesus paid with his life we will be able to be with them again through all eternity.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
