“ My sincere condolences to you and your family. James was a great guy. We worked together at Nabisco. Both of us was sleepy every night when we walked through the door. We would laugh at each other. My God you comfort and peace at the difficult time.

James I'm gonna really miss you, I had the pleasure of meeting your beautiful daughter at the funeral home, and She is a sweet young lady. You helped me so much over the years, and you also was a friend and coworker to me at Nabisco, you always stayed to yourself and didn't bother anyone. R. I.P. my friend “ Lewis.. you where always my second dad to me...

We had a lot of fun at the drag race is a monster truck rally's... I wouldn't have experienced it without you...

Also thank you for giving me the opportunity to work with you when I didn't have a job to learn all the things I did from you....

He was always there when I needed you the most...

I love you....

Will miss you and always remember you...
