

James S. Lincoln

September 5, 1943 - May 27, 2012

James Stanley Lincoln was born June 28, 1949 in Hartsville, South Carolina to Beulah Lee Brunson Lincoln) Street and the late James Arthur Lincoln. At the age of one, he moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where he resided until his passing.

James received his primary education through the Baltimore City Public School System. He was a graduate of Baltimore City College, ("The Castle on the Hill"), in 1967. After completing his high school education, James went on to earn his Master Plumbing License. This achievement gave him the distinction of being one of the two Black Master Plumbers in the State of Maryland. His plumbing skills privileged him help build the new hotels and casinos currently in Atlantic City.

James met and married LaMarrien Singley in 1970, and from their union was born one son, Kenneth James Lincoln. He is also the proud father of a lovely daughter, Tursheila Lincoln. James, also known as "Lincoln" or "Linc", was known for sharing his God -given talent and knowledge of plumbing with many people. James loved to talk to you about his love for God, and would tell you that he believed in Jesus Christ. He loved to play cards and board games he would sit on the front porch of his house playing Dominos with his cousins and friends for hours. He was an excellent Chess and scrabble player. He was known for his quirky sense of humor and the statement he always used with family and friends, "I love you N---,N---!"

James was preceded in death by his father, James Arthur, and his younger brother, Kenneth. He leaves to cherish his memory: his beloved, LaMarrien; his children, Kenneth and Tursheila; his mother, Beulah Street; his sister, Evelyn Mulhahn; his brother, Don Eric Lincoln, Sr. one brother-in-law, Carl Weber; one sister-in-law, Jennifer Hopkins-Lincoln; seven grandchildren; one great-grandchild; nieces; nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy but the bible gives us real hope for our loved ones at Rev 21:3&4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Jehovah God promises that he will wipe out death and will take away the pain we feel when we loose our loved ones. How comforting it is to know about what Jehovah will do for us in the soon future. I hope that this brings your family some comfort during this difficult time.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
