

James M. Brown

August 31, 1939 - August 29, 2002

James M. Brown, son of the late James H. Brown Sr. and the late Edna Whyte Brown, was born on August 31, 1939 in Kinston, North Carolina. He departed this life suddenly on August 30, 2002. He received his education at Carver High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Soon after high school, while working in a local hotel, he married Joan Marie Cooper and had four children. In 1968, he started working for the Baltimore City Public Schools. After several years with the city, he transferred to the transportation division where he became a driver/trainer until his retirement in December 2001 after thirty-four years of service. James was also well liked by his co-workers and friends and would do anything for a stranger as well as his loved ones. He was a father figure to many. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Joan Brown; his daughters, Sandra Kenan and Renarda Brown; his twin sons, John P. Brown and James H. Brown Jr.; eleven grandchildren, Nikia, Tierra, James, Jasmine, Crystal, Jalisa, Avery, Alecia, Carlea, Trevasia and Trevon; four sisters, Mary Elizabeth Stanley, Margaret Ellen Green, Katherine Patricia Williams and Chlorice Antoinette Ware; two sisters-in-law, Ruth Weaver Smith and Veronica Smith; one brother-in-law, Hampton Claiborne; and a host of other relatives and friends.
