

James Madison Day

October 1, 1956 - December 5, 2009

James M. Day, Jr., went home to be with the Lord on Saturday, December 5, 2009, after a lengthy illness. James, affectionately known as "JD", was born October 1, 1956 to the late Mr. and Mrs. James Day, Sr. He attended Richmond Public Schools. He accepted Christ and was baptized at an early age and eventually joined the Seventh Street Memorial Baptist Church family. JD worked for several companies, including the Greater Richmond Transit Company where he drove the C-Van until his health began to decline. JD loved spending time with his daughter, his family, and watching his favorite football team, the Dallas Cowboys. He was a person that was well loved, helpful to many, and fun to be around. He will be greatly missed. He was preceded in death by his parents and a niece, Nicole Day. He leaves to cherish his loving memory, his daughter, Jamiel Day; four brothers, Joseph (Madora), Dennis (Sandra), Bruce, and Gregory (Helen); three sisters, Alfreda V. Walker, Francine Day, and Monica Day-Johnson (Anthony); two honorary daughters, LaTisha and LaTasha Richards; a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins, one devoted, Ada Taylor, and other relatives and friends.
