

James McBride

June 1, 1912 - December 5, 2002

On Thursday, December 5, 2002 God dispatched His angel to the Sinai Hospital and took unto Himself our beloved James McBride. James was born on June 1, 1912 in Antioch, North Carolina to the late Dennis and Artense McBride. He spent all of his adolescent and young adult life in North Carolina, where he met and married Ruth L. Graham, and from this union one child was born. In 1945, James migrated to Baltimore, Maryland seeking employment to better the life of his family. He was employed by Bethlehem Steel, Food Fair, Inc. and finally Beth-El Synagogue from which he retired. Brother McBride was a quiet, soft spoken and kind man. He did so much for many, asking nothing in return. Uncle Jimmy, as he was affectionately called, will be missed by all, but his memory will linger on. He was a great lover of people, especially his granddaughter, LaRone, who preceded him in death. He joined the St. Paul Institutional Baptist Church under the pastorate of Rev. Oliver E. Miller and later Rev. Manasseh Cromartie. He served faithfully until his health began to fail. He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving and devoted wife, Ruth; one loving daughters, Annie Merle Flowers; one granddaughter, Sasha Flower; one brother, Bozzie McBride; one great-aunt, Sarah Margaret Washington of Hoke County, North Carolina; one son-in-law, George Flowers; five sisters-in-law, Lulu Mae McBride, Cora Lee McBride, Margaret McNeill of Red Springs, North Carolina, Viola and Alfredia Graham of Baltimore, Maryland; one brother-in-law, Pasley Graham of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of devoted nieces, nephews and friends.
