

James A. Mitchell Jr.

February 16, 1955 - June 26, 2014

James Albert Mitchell Jr., son of James Albert Mitchell Sr. and the late Elise Butler Mitchell was called home to be with the Lord on June 26, 2014. James Albert Mitchell was born February 16, 1955 in Baltimore, MD where he attended Baltimore City Public Schools. Later, he entered Job Corps where he received his GED. Not long after returning home from Job Corps, he met the love of his life, Katherine Wesley Mitchell who he adored, cherished and loved. James and Katherine Mitchell later conceived three children, the late James Mitchell III, Terrell Mitchell and Tiffany Mitchell.

James (better known as "Skip) worked at ABC Box company for seventeen years and in his spare time, he coached football at Robert C. Marshall Recreation Center where he won five championships. You see, coaching football and interacting with kids was special to him. Later on down the line, Skip decided to pursue his dream of being a chef and started working at the Marriott in 1990.

Six years later, Skip and Kathy became husband and wife. Even though Skip's health started to fail, he never lost sight of things or his priorities. He was a true definition of a provider, mentor, leader and he had such a great impact on so many, especially the youth. He will truly be missed for his wonderful voice, loud music, his cooking and his heart that touched so many. How could we forget the coffee club with Ma Weeze and Ms. Niecey?

Preceding him in death are his mother, Elise Butler Mitchell; son, James Mitchell III; brother, Gary Mitchell and sisters, Patricia, Sandra and Mary Mitchell.

He leaves to mourn: father, James Mitchell Sr.; wife, Katherine Mitchell; two sons, Demarco and Terrell Mitchell; daughter, Tiffany Mitchell; three adopted kids, Dominic and Curtis Thompson and Tanika Rogers; four adopted brothers, Rodney, Troy, Darryl and Gary Billups and two adopted sisters, Lynette and Sherry Billups; five granddaughters, Markia, Martika, Janerra, Jakiera, Taylor Mitchell and Zaiyana; two grandsons, Demarco Mitchell Jr. and Shanard Jennings; two great-grandkids, Kamari and Keara; godson, Kevin who he adored so much and a host of nieces and nephews.
