

James Monroe Nelson

May 7, 1915 - September 9, 2002

James Monroe Nelson, son of the late Doc and Betty Nelson, was born on May 7, 1915 in Greenville, North Carolina. He departed this life on September 9, 2002 after a lengthy illness. He received his education in the public school system of Greenville, N.C. At the age of eighteen he relocated to Baltimore, Maryland to live with his beloved aunt, Bertha Green. James became a full time state employee and retired after thirty years of employment. During his early adult life, James met two lovely women, Mary Elizabeth Moore and Mary Garris. From those relationships, two daughters were born Alice Virginia Nelson (Big Alice) and Alice Wyman Nelson (Little Alice). Yes, he loves the name Alice. In 1977, James entrusted his life to Jehovah and became a devout member of the Jehovah Witness faith where he faithfully served and pioneered throughout the Baltimore Community. James made numerous friends wherever he went and was loved by all. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted and loving father. He leaves to cherish his memory: two daughters, Alice Virginia Nelson and Alice Wyman Nelson; four grandchildren, Renold Moody, Tracie M. Wyman, Rebecca Nelson and JoAnne Ford; three great-grandchildren, Malik Nelson, Albany Ford and Issac Ford; a first cousin, Annie Lee Slade; second cousin, Mary Moore, and third cousin, Cheryl Rivers and her husband, Herman Rivers; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ James Monroe Nelson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM