

James Montague

February 27, 1929 - July 14, 2012

James Montague was born on February 27, 1929 to the late Maude Montague in Durham, North Carolina. He entered his eternal home quietly on July 14, 2012.

James received his education in Durham, North Carolina. He later moved to Portsmouth, Virginia where he met and married the Ophelia Montague on February 24, 1947. Out of this union were three children, the late Willie Sr., Dorothy and Vanessa. They later moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1950.

James was a member of Sweet Hope Free Will Baptist Church. In 2003 James wanted to be baptized again, and he was.

James retired from the Bethlehem Steel Corporation after working there for over thirty years. "Skin" (as he was known to his friends) loved to hunt and go fishing. He also loved doing home improvement his way. He loved to read the Bible and has read the entire Bible.

Skin made numerous friends wherever he went. He was a devoted father, grandfather and uncle.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Lonnie and grandson, Willie Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memory: loving daughters, Dorothy and Vanessa; son-in-law, Meredith Sr.; daughter-in-law, Freida; sister-in-law, Edna; eight grandchildren, Eurana, Meredith Jr., Malcom, Sharnessa, Crysal, Darryl Jr., Darius and Tyran; eleven great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
