

James Nathaniel Charles Weems

March 18, 1947 - September 28, 2006

JAMES NATHANIEL CHARLES WEEMS, "Butch" as he was fondly known, was born on March 18, 1947 to the late Pearl Wallace and James Weems. Later in life, Pearl was united with Johnson Janey who took on the role of Butch's father. Butch received his formal education through the Baltimore City school system. In his adult life, Butch served as a longshoreman at Sparrows Point Bethlehem Steel Company. He also worked various other jobs including the University of Maryland. In December 1967, Butch took a wife, Edwina Jackson. No children were born from this union. Butch fathered two children in his life, James Smith and Joyce Green. Butch married a second time during his life, his wife of many years was Elizabeth Marie Winn. They married in 1979. Butch had three siblings, Henrietta Thompson who preceded him in death, Vonzella Hobbs who also preceded him in death and Vanessa Reed of Baltimore City. Butch loved music, dominos and playing chess. He also loved to party. He and his friends would stand around in the backyard and sing old Temptations songs. He was always the life of the party. The man was jokester. He loved to dress; slacks, freshly pressed shirt, dress shoes with a Kangol cap every single day. Butch fought many battles in his life, but he always came out on top and he never gave up. When things got rough, he put his faith in the Lord and was a member of Bethel A.M.E. Church. Butch leaves to mourn: two children, Dwayne Smith and Joyce Green; devoted sister, Vanessa Reed; seven grandchildren; daughter-in-law, Joanne Smith; son-in-law, Gary Green; two uncles, two aunts, and one special aunt, Laurretta

Weems; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends who will surely miss him.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
