

James O. Brown

August 28, 1933 - April 17, 2010

JAMES O. BROWN, son of late James Brown, Sr. and Willie B. Brown, was born on August 28, 1933 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on April 17, 2010 after a lengthy illness. He received his education at Carver Vocational Technical High School and majored in Barbering. At age nineteen, he began working at various jobs from Dry Cleaning Presser to Store Stock Clerk at Read's Drug Store. At age twenty-seven, he gained employment at Clifton T. Perkins State Hospital where his duties were Security Attendant for seventeen years. Then from 1977 to 1996, James began working as one of the original employees at the State's Satellite Facility, The Hamilton House. In 1958, James married the late Elva Plater and from this union, his only son, Craig Brown was born. He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sorely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and devoted family man. We all will never forget that unique laugh he had. He leaves to cherish his memory: son, Craig Brown; sister, Elaine Capers; brother, Hamlet Brown; grandson, Antrell Brown, stepson, Ronald Boone; two special friends, Addie Garner and Pancho Bumbray; and a host of neices, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ To the family, please accept my condolences. May you be comforted as you reflect on the promise of the resurrection. Isa 26:19 says, "Your dead ones will live... they will rise up." Jesus also demonstrated the power of the resurrection with Lazarus at John 11:38-44. This shows us just how much Almighty God Jehovah cares for us.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##
